

Gps co-ordinates

- A further enhancement, whereby I am now extracing gps co-ordinates for the street. This will be useful for sure in one of the visualisations we can (and think we should) do.
- The python script concatenates street and locality and queries nominatim to return gps co-ordinates
- We can answer a question like: Where are accident hotspots? And, can we predict future accidents by street?